Invitation

Dear Friends

Warm Greetings!

The Department of Paediatric Surgery, S.M.S. Medical College, Jaipur, Rajasthan is organising Alumni Meet in the evening of 28th March, 2020. This would be in continuity with Workshop on “Hypospadias and PUV” on 27th & 28th March, 2020.

This is the first alumni meet of the department since its inception from 1st July 1965. The department has to its glory 84 Paediatric Surgeons who have cleared M.Ch. Paediatric Surgery and 3 Paediatric Surgeons who did their MNAMS from the department. The Department is one of the largest contributors to Paediatric Surgery faculty and Paediatric Surgery consultants in India.

This would be a golden opportunity for all the alumni to get together, meet old colleagues, make an emotional connect and to revive their memories of Jaipur and Jaykaylon Hospital (Sir Padampat Mother and Child Health Institute). We welcome all alumni of department to grace the occasion by visiting their alma mater at Jaipur. We would make sure that our alumni meet would be the most memorable experience with all of us.

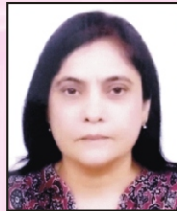

Thank You!

Regards,

Organizing Committee

About Jaipur

The City Palace

City Palace : In the heart of the old city is the royal residence built in a blend of Rajasthan and Mughal Styles.

Jantar Mantar : It is a stone observatory. The Jaipur's Jantar Mantar is the largest of the five astronomical inventions.

Hawa Mahal : Also called "The Palace of Winds" is one of the most recognized monuments of Jaipur which is situated just off Bari Chaupar. This honey-combed, pink sandstone structure has 953 windows called 'Jharokhas'.

Albert Hall : Situated in the midst of Ramnivas Garden, it is an imposing stone structure executed in the Indo-Persian style of architecture.

Jal Mahal : On the way to Amber, this picturesque palace built by Sawai Pratap Singh in 1799 in the middle of the Mansagar lake as a summer resort. During winters many species of migratory birds flock to this lake.

Nahargarh Fort : Built in 1734 and extended in 1868, Nahargarh over looks the city of Jaipur. It affords spectacular views of the city especially on a clear sunny day.

Amber Fort : Amber is the old capital of the worth while Jaipur state. A fascinating blend of Rajput and Mughal architecture, this complex of palaces emerges dramatically as a background of the Maottha Lake.

Jaigarh Fort : One of the few military structures of medieval India, retaining its ancient splendor in palaces, gardens, reservoirs and a well planned cannon foundry. It houses the world's biggest wheeled cannon the "Jai Bana" with its 20 feet long barrel and wheels 9 feet in diameter.
